DESERTED AND AFIRE.

The Clyde Steamer Pawnee Burning At Sea.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

New York, June 27—News of the burning of the Clyde steamer Pawnee, plying between Boston and Brunswick, Ga., was brought to the city this morning by the steamer City of Macon, Captain Savage. The latter steamer sighted the Pawnee yesterday morning, forty miles off Cape Henry, enveloped in flames and huge, black columns of smoke, obscuring the sky. As the City of Macon appeared, the cargo of cotton aboard the doomed vessel was observed to be feeding the flames. The Pawnee was burned almost to the water's edge. All the rigging on the upper deck and the upper works, and the main deck aft, were gone. Only the smokestack and the flagstaff remaining. There was absolutely no sign of life on board the burning ship, and no boats nor sign of men anywhere.

BEEN BURNING TWELVE HOURS.

New York, June 27—Captain Savage says that two or three hours earlier he passed the Cromwell liner Knickerbocker, bound to New Orleans, and also a southbound Clyde liner whose name he was unable to discern. Captain Savage thinks it possible that the crew and passengers were picked up by some other southbound steamer. The fact that on the Pawnee's stern lights were burning indicated that the fire started in the night and had probably been burning for twelve hours.

MR CLYDE'S OPINION.

New York. June 27—Thos. Clyde, of the Clyde line, said this afternoon that he knew nothing of the details of the loss of Pawnee, and could only hope that the members of the crew would ultimately be saved. Continuing he said: "If they took to the small boats and were not sighted by any vessel, they would, I thing, have a good chance of making Norfolk. Captain Savage says that, leaving the wreck, he cruised about in the neighborhood for miles on all sides hoping to pick up some of the crew, but saw no signs of anybody or boat.

SAVED AT WILMINGTON.

New York, June 27—Word has been received from Wilmington, N. C., this afternoon that the crew of the Pawnee were picked up by the steamship Geo. W. Clyde and taken to that city. All were saved.

CORRESPONDENTS' OUTING

Given By the Pennsylvania Railroad Unusually Pleasant.

BAGLEY TO BE REAPPOINTED

To the Naval Academy at West Point —Prominent North Carolinians in the Capital City.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 27—The party of Washington correspondents returned to the national capital from Cape May yesterday afternoon. Every year it is the custom of the management of the Pennsylvania Railroad to give the correspondents, and newspaper men of the national capital an outing to this well known resort. The newspaper men, as usual were accompanied this year by their wives and daughters. The outing was much enjoyed by all who availed themselves of the invitation of the Pennsylvania line, which was extended through the courtesy of Mr. George W. Boyd. Nothing is left undone by the management of the road to make these annual outings a success in every possible way. The party left Washington Friday morning, about 9:30, having lunch at Philadelphia, where they were joined by a party of newspaper men, and their ladies, from Baltimore and Philadelphia Cape May was reached Friday evening. Saturday evening a ball was given in honor of the guests, and Sunday was spent quietly. The return trip to Washington was made Monday morning, the party reaching here in the afternoon.

Only one incident occurred to mar the happiness of the party during the trip, and for a time it put a damper upon the spirits of the newspaper men. It was the narrow escape from drowning of Mr. Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau, and Mr. Philander Johnson, a well known Washington newspaper men. In bathing the men by some unaccountable means got beyond their depth, and away from the rest of the bathers. They were rescued with some difficulty by Representative Loudenslayer, of New Jersey, and a Philadelphia newspaper man. Mr. Johnson is connected with the Evening Star of this city, and is said to be correspondent for a number of southern dailies.

On the return trip to Washington a resolution of thanks was voted unanimously to Col. Boyd, and to the management of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Among prominent southern men in Washington is General Peter Tracy, of Memphis, Tennessee. General Tracy is at the head of one of the largest printing establishments in the south, and is in the city for the purpose of gathering material for a "Dewey" souvenir, which he proposes to publish before the return of Admiral Dewey from the east. In speaking of the proposed souvenir Gen. Tracy said that he proposed to get it up as elaborately as possible. It will be illustrated by pictures of the leading events in which the admiral has been a prominent figure. It will be gotten up with the idea of bringing it within the reach of all, and so it can be sold as a small figure.

It is said that President McKiley will reappoint young Bagley to the naval academy at West Point next year. He is a brother of the late Ensign Bagley, of North Carolina, who was killed at the battle before Cardenas. He recently failed to pass the entrance examination. As he was not fully prepared to take the examination when he did, having had only very short notice to prepare himself, the president desires to give him a second chance. Bagley is a nephew of Hon. Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina.

It is reported that Mrs. Morelle, wife of the North Carolina clergyman, who died from illuminating gas in New York City, will be provided with a comfortable home by her sisters and brothers. The home is located at Williamsboro, North Carolina, a part of the family estate.

Miss Margaret Orr, who has been visiting in North Carolina and Virginia since last winter, is in Washington City for a few days stopping over enroute to her home at Brooklyn, New York.

Mr. H. B. Varner, of Lexington, N. C., editor and proprietor of the "Dispatch," of that city, is in Washington on personal business. While in the city he is stopping at the St. James Hotel.

Hon. James D. Glenn, of Greensboro, is among the well known North Carolina people at the national capital, stopping at the St. James Hotel.

Among other North Carolina people in Washington are Messrs. T. S. Clark and wife of Asheville; A. H. Gross of Oxford; Mrs. L. B. DeRosset and daughter, Miss Annie, of Wilmington.

MR. J. W. RIDGE DEAD.

Father of Mr. W. J. Ridge Died at Science Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ridge returned at noon today from Science, Randolph county, where they have been for some time at the bedside of Mr. Ridge's father, Mr. J. W. Ridge, who died Saturday night after several weeks of sickness.

The deceased was 60 years old and one of the most popular citizens in the county. He had figured prominently in the politics of Randolph, but several years ago retired to private life and engaged in the mercantile business at Science. He also owned one of the most valuable farms in his section and was a valuable and beloved man in his community. He was well known in Greensboro and his many friends here regret exceedingly to hear of his death.

The remains were buried Sunday afternoon at the cemetery at Science.

THE PRESIDENT RETURNS

To Discuss the Grave Philippine Questions.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 27—Although the president came back ostensibly on account of his wife's health, it is said in some quarters that he has been summoned back to discuss the Philippine situation. Three great questions are to be considered: First—whether to give Otis 60,000 or 35,000 troops; second—whether to secure additional men under another call for volunteers, or simply a more energetic enrollment of troops under the present call; third—what steps to be taken against the anti-imperialists reported by Otis to be keeping the insurrection alive.

ARRIVED AT MANILA.

Manila, June 27—The transport Grant and the cable ship Hooker have arrived here.

Have You Seen Them?

Have you seen the wonderful bargains being offered in the great clearing-out sale at the Carolina Shoe Co? If you haven't, you should go at once. If you can find your size in the lot, you can get a $2.00 shoe for $1.00; $2 40, $3.00 and $3.50 shoes for $1.50.

THE MONEY APPORTIONED.

And Work For The Tournament Is Begun In Earnest.

The work for the State Firemen's Tournament and Guilford County Industrial Exhibit began in earnest today.

The central committee held a meeting last night and apportioned the money to the sub-committees and the chairmen of the different committees were instructed to have every member at work this morning and to have them add more vim to their efforts—not that the work done before had not been entirely satisfactory but because, to make the exercises of the gala week the greatest thing of the kind ever held in the state, hard and untiring work is necessary.

The manufacturers of Greensboro should not fail to do their full part in making the occasion a success for none will be more benefited than they, by the coming of the crowds to this city. The merchants are making a liberal response to the calls of the committees but every company and every person in the city should work, talk and contribute for the tournament.

Work!

CAN'T LOOSE GREENSBORO.

We are To Have One of the Finest Hotels In The South.

BUILDING ALREADY COMPLETED

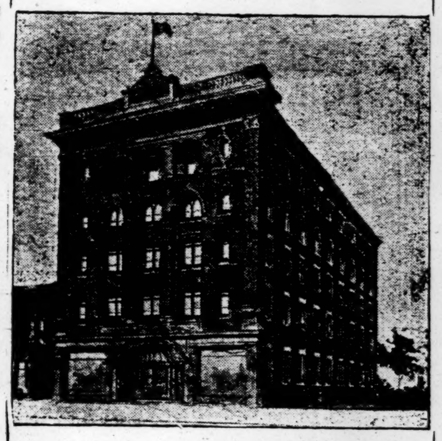
Handsome Insurance Structure on East Market Street Leased By Hotel Normandie Co.

Nothing that has ever appeared in the Telegram's news columns has been received by the people of Greensboro with more genuine pleasure than the facts made known below:

Within sixty days one of the handsomest, most modern and most approved hotels in the south will be opened to the public in Greensboro.

Messrs. Wharton & McAlister, agents, this morning closed a contract with The Hotel Normandie Company, which was formed in this city this morning, whereby the handsome and elegant new building of the Southern Loan & Trust Company, which is nearing completion, on East Market street, is leased to The Hotel Normandie Company for a period of years.

The owners of the property have been approached a number of times since the destruction of the Benbow House by fire on the 17th, by parties desiring to lease it for a hotel, but because no provision had been made for a dining room in the construction of the building, had not considered any of the various propositions. Apart from this the building is admirably fitted in its arrangement for a hotel.



But upon learning that enough ground for a dining hall could be leased, adjoining the property and just south of the government square, the ground was leased and The Hotel Normandie Company formed Upon the newly-acquired property will be erected a handsome and spacious dining room, the windows of which will open out on Uncle Sam's park.

The Hotel Normandie Company will furnish the hotel in a manner in keeping with the building and proposes to give the public the best accommodations to be found in the south.

The Hotel Normandie will be heated by steam, lighted by electricity, will have the most approved passenger elevator, and will have rooms arranged in suites with baths attached and will contain every convenience and comfort of a first-class modern hotel.

The new Hotel Normandie building, a cut of which is printed herewith, was designed by Architect Frank P. Milburn, of Charlotte, and is constructed of the best material throughout, the outside being of Richmond clay brick. It was designed for an office building and every room has all the light that could be desired. Every room is finished in the best style possible without resorting to extravagance.

The building is five stories high and contains 103 rooms, besides the dining room and kitchen, which will be built as an addition.

Work on the building is to be completed as soon as possible,—so soon that it may be furnished and the hotel ready for guests within sixty days.

The stockholders of The Hotel Normandie Company have not been made known though it is assured that they are progressive men who have the best interests of Greensboro at heart and who will give the city a hotel to be proud of.

The manager has not been selected, but we are told that a good man is under consideration.

ARRESTED AND JAILED.

C. E. Ridge, of Asheboro, Charged With Forgery.

C. E. Ridge, of Asheboro, aged about 25 years, and son of B. B. Ridge, of Farmers, Randolph county, was yesterday arrested for forgery, and in default of $2,000 bond, was committed to jail.

Ridge is charged with obtaining money from the county of Randolph, by foreging the name of J. T. Winlow, registor of deeds, to blank orders, and is said to have secured larger amounts.

Kaufmann fire sale at Shrier's shoe store now going on of men's furnishings, hats, trunks and shoes.

Rebuilding of the Benbow.

There seems to be much uncertainty as to the rebuilding of the Benbow House at Greensboro. Mr. Fisher, a Greensboro man, tells the News and Observer, he proposes to rebuild on one condition—that he be allowed to sell whiskey. If this condition is not complied with, and the Greensboro men say it will not be, Fisher declares he will allow the walls and charred ruins to remain just as they are—an eyesore to the citizens of the place. Mr. Fisher has been offered $35,000 for the walls and site, but declines to take it. —News and Observer.

New Recruits.

Eight recruits who enlisted at the army recruiting office here last week, left at noon for New York, from which place they will be sent to Porto Rico and Cuba. Those who enlisted for calvary service in Porto Rico were: Ernest L. Culbreth, of High Point; John C. Newly, of Davidson, and John Fox, Silas Lambeth and Henry W. Smith, of Proximity. The following enlisted for infantry service in Cuba: Jeff M. Hilton, High Point, and Wm. L. Lewis and Joe M. Fulton, Walnut Cove.

Eleven recruits left here Saturday for San Francisco, from whence they go to the Philippines.

A Good Suggestion.

It has been suggested that whoever rebuilds the Benbow hotel purchase the square across Sycamore street from the hotel property and build on both sides of the street, arching Sycamore and building a nice theater on the south side; and that a modern French cafe be opened in this part of the building also, to furnish meals at all hours of the day and night.

Such an arrangement as this would mean much for Greensboro and there is a faint hope that the idea will be adopted by the rebuilder of the hotel. It is at least worthy of consideration.

EDUCATION IN THE SOUTH.

The following is an extract from an editorial in the New York Times on the past, present and future educational drawbacks, disadvantages, advantages and possibilities of the south:

Certainly the task remaining in the south is a most serious and difficult one. Judged by comparison with any problem presented in the north, it might well be regarded as desperate. It is not merely that the mass of illiteracy is probably greater than in corresponding communities in other parts of the union, but there is the fact that the illiteracy of the two races must be dealt with seperately. The cost and difficulty of education in thinly settled regions are thus doubled, or more than doubled. To this source of difficulty must be added the peculiar character of the blacks and the obstacles offered by their surroundings, which make the whole process more complex and arduous. The whole problem is one of which we of the north can have only a dim and inadequate conception, and those of us who study it most closely are obliged to struggle against a strong tendency to judge it by comparison with the problems of the north and to find it almost hopeless.

Yet, if we think what has actually been accomplished and under what conditions, we have reason to feel the strongest faith in the ultimate outcome. The actual progress made in the south since the close of the civil war is one of the marvels of history. We know of no parallel for it. Four years of bitter and devastating war had raged in a land of largely undeveloped resources, with limited trade, with small variety of industries, with a social system ill adapted to the conflicts of modern civilization, with an industrial system of a narrow and singularly inadequate character. Poverty of the most grinding sort was the rule, and the common comforts of our own working classes were unattainable by those that had been accustomed to ease and wealth.

The great self-supporting, varied middle class of small traders, farmers, and mechanics existing among us was relatively feeble in the south, and where it existed was sorely crippled. The whole laboring class, by whom the great mass of regular toil had been performed, was upturned and demoralized. The mere task of daily existence was made more trying than it has ever been in any part of the north, even in the earliest days. Among these depressing and anxious conditions the people of the south, with scant aid from their countrymen of the north—with, indeed, cruel interference and oppression in many ways—had to work out the terrible problem of self-support and of orderly and law-abiding social and political life.

What has been accomplished has been marked by many defects and shortcomings. But on the whole it presents a record of manly courage, fidelity, self-respect, and moral energy that may well make us, the fortunate victors of the civil war, very modest as to our own achievements and very proud of our southern fellow countrymen. For such a people there is in the difficult future no such thing as failure. It is our duty and it is our precious privilege to aid them in every way that we can—to aid them as brothers, in loyal affection, to the accomplishment of a common task, a common destiny.

The Wilmington Dispatch takes the correct view of the trouble a few chronic kickers are trying to create over the impracticability of the working of the Jim Crow car law. The trouble is really, we think, owing to the "mistaken estimate of the relative number of blacks and whites who will travel in the divided cars." Following are the words of the Dispatch:

"It does not seem fair to criticise the Jim Crow car law or the Jim Crow car because of the inconvenience from over-crowding being experienced on some roads. This trouble results not from a defect in the law or from the general principle of separation of the races on railroad trains, but from a mistaken estimate of the relative number of blacks and whites who will travel in the divided cars. No doubt the railroads will eventually have their cars so divided that there will be no unnecessary discomfort to the passengers, white or colored."

Many a slave to the nicotene giant will appreciate the following story of a Jefferson, Texas, man who chewed 20 cents' worth of tobacco a week, and concluded to try a tobacco cure. In two weeks he ate up $1.50 worth of cure, and for the next two weeks he used 10 cents' worth of candy, 5 cents' worth of peanuts and 5 cents' worth of cough drops per day. During these two weeks he also consumed two large rubber erasers, ate the rubber tips from 14 lead pencils, chewed up a dozen penholders and browsed off his moustache as high as he could reach. He now chews tobacco in the interest of economy.

The progress of our army of conquest in the Philippine Isles has been very small. Otis' description of the situation, sent to the war department yesterday, is calculated not to cause any great elation among the Washington authorities. With a scope of only about sixty miles north and south and hardly so much from east to west, under the American flag, after many months of hard struggling, during which sickness and death has claimed many of our troops, the situation is truly "disencouraging."

That was a horrible occurrence at the little village of Bethel, near Charlotte, in which the man named Parsons lost his life. We publish the dispatch elsewhere in the Telegram. The fact of a man's living for nearly two hours after the entire separation of the aorta at the waist, to say nothing of the accompanying agonies, and the preservation of consciousness perfectly till the last breath, must be of profound interest to medical science. Such amazing vitality was never before heard of.

"Though a girl may weigh 200 pounds," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "she is probably 'a dear little fairy' to some susceptible fellow."

Paint The Poles.

It is understood that the Postal Telegraph Company's new poles in Greensboro will be painted. This is a good step and will add much to the good looks of the poles, as well as preserve them.

In this connection it would not be amiss to to suggest that all the telegraph and telephone poles in the city be painted. It would cost the respective companies but little and would add much to the beauty of the streets on which they are located.

How Now!

Mr. W. J Blackburn, a well known tobacco man of Greensboro, was in the city today consulting with the directors of the Tobacco Warehouse Company.—Fayetteville Observer.

Come on back, Mr. Blackburn, Greensboro can't afford to lose you.

Cholera Morbus Quickly Cured.

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholora morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare, of Hare Bros., Fincastle, Ohio. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with stomach or bowel trouble. C. E. Holton, druggist.

Notes of The Prowler

The Irony of Fate.

"Thou cuttest off my head with a golden axe,
And smilest upon the stroke that murders me."

A young Greensboro star-gazer wanted to carry his "best girl" to church the other night. He had heard of the following piece of very stale English, and to him it seemed a gem, so he utilized it. Here is a copy of his note:

"Sunday evening.

"My dear ———

"May I have the exquisite beatitude of escorting your corporeal system over the alluvial landscape that intervenes between your father's hospitable domicile and the holy edifice of divine worship, there to listen to the expounding of the scriptures when the diurnal orb shall have sought his last resting place behind the occidental hills?

THE REPLY.

"Sunday evening.

"My dear ———

"Owing to the effeminate frailty of your corporeal entity which is highly accentuated at this time when hydrophobic canines are strolling around; and owing to the intolerable contamination of your cigarette-scented breath, which is wont to so unmitigatedly insult my nasal organ; and owing to your great fund of infinitesimal and exceedingly tiresome talk, which makes me weary and reminds me that blessed are the deaf, &c., &c., &c., &c., I shall have to decline to accompany you from my father's hostile domicile. Just here I would remark that I am persuaded that neither life nor death, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, is able to separate me from your disagreeable attentions, except a straight-out kick. And here goes. So long.

"A cinch!" cried the mosquito, who had overheard a quarrel between Mr. and Mrs. Henpeck. "Come on, fellows! I heard the woman tell the man he was the most thin-skinned person she ever knew."

Even the best blood works in vein.

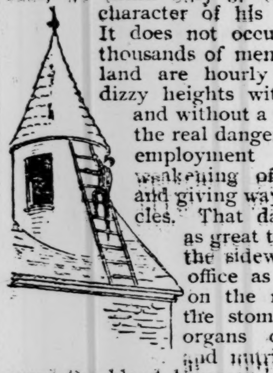
A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the houses. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Maid to order—the waiter girl.

Lafayette Horton, a well-to-do farmer, who shot and killed Thomas Bivens, near Americus, Ga., when the latter abused members of his family, surrendered yesterday to the sheriff.



When a man falls headlong from a roof, we think only of the hazardous character of his employment. It does not occur to us that thousands of men at sea or on land are hourly climbing to dizzy heights without a fear and without a fall, and that the real danger is not in the employment but in the weakening of the nerves and giving way of the muscles. That danger is just as great to the man on the sidewalk or in the office as to the man on the roof. When the stomach and the organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased the blood becomes impoverished, and nerves and muscles grow weak for lack of nutrition. More fatal diseases probably begin with "weak stomach" than with any other cause. The first symptom of disordered stomach calls for prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a vegetable medicine, absolutely non-alcoholic and non-narcotic, and is unequaled for the strength it gives to blood, nerves and muscles.

"During the summer and fall of 1896," writes Chas. H. Sergeant, Esq., of Plain City, Madison Co., Ohio. "I became all 'run down,' nerves and stomach were out of order. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. He said I had general debility, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and, thanks to you for your advice, I used six bottles; and since I stopped taking it about one year ago, I have not taken any medicine of any kind, and have been able to work every day. My appetite is good. I can eat three square meals a day, and I do not feel that miserable burning in the stomach after eating. I think I am now well."

AT MT. VERNON SPRINGS.

A Place of Rest and Enjoyment—A Jolly Hay Ride.

Correspondence Telegram.

Mount Vernon Springs, June 26—If you want to rest and enjoy a respite from the heat and worry of office and store, come to Mt. Vernon Springs. The season is now in full blast and a large crowd of jovial, good-natured, handsome and winsome guests occupy swings, arm chairs and hammocks under the wide-spreading branches of the splendid grove which surrounds the hotel, making merry the hills with laughter. The bowling alley is a popular resort, and Miss Queenie McDonald, of Greensboro, has won distinction among the lady players. The springs, flowing with the water of life, are frequented quite often. Mr. R W. Brooks and daughters have spent Sunday here and it is with regret the guests saw them depart today. Miss Virginia Brown, of Greensboro, is as bewitching as ever. Mr. and Mrs. J C. Murchison are among the guests, also Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock, of Greensboro, with their two sons, who are into the games and amusements with zest.

Rev. P. R. Law, of Lumberton and Dr Edwards and daughter, of Durham, are sojourning here, also Mr. Wescott Roberson, Dr. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Matton and Miss Matton, of High Point, and Mrs. Hall, of Dunn.

The breeze which was wont to rustle here in other years rustles yet, and cools the heated brow, the water restores the appetite and the table at meal time satisfies the longings of the inner man.

Saturday night a party of jolly pleasure seekers enjoyed a hay ride, and we let one of them tell it, as follows:

THE HAY RIDE.

Bumpity, bump! bump! bump!

Our young friends at Mt. Vernon Springs are taking advantage of these beautiful moonlight nights.

Last week Mr. William Simpson, a charming young man, of Greensboro, gave a farewell hay ride to the guests of the Springs, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock. It proved to be very enjoyable affair and the party are indebted to the affable Mr. Simpson not alone for the pleasant evening spent but also for the many solos rendered by him during the evening. Those who have never traveled the Chatham county roads cannot appreciate the fun of the huge rocks and deep gullies; so thinks Mr. Whitlock, who happened to occupy a seat on the rear wagon gate. We might also add that those who have never heard Mr Simpson sing cannot appreciate his charming voice. The occasion will linger long in the memories of those who were fortunate enough to be present. The demand for liniment was great. The least said the better.

The party consisted of the following:

Mrs. Whitlock, Miss Ina Foust, Miss Berta Edwards, Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Nettie Matton, Miss Katherine Brooks, Miss Lula Brooks, Miss Queenie McDonald.

Mr. Whitlock, Mr. Simpson, Mr Roberson, Dr. Edwards, and Eugene Foust.

A Cheap Trip to the Pacific Coast.

The National Educational Association meeting at Los Angeles, Cal., is the occasion for the Southern Railway to put on the remarkably cheap rate of One Fare for the Round Trip (plus $2.00 Association Membership fee). This, in connection with the new Palace Tourist Sleeping Cars, operated over the Southern Railway and the Southern Pacific, a double berth in which costs only $7.00, renders possible the cheapest and most enjoyable trip of the season. A particularly pleasant feature of this trip is that the tickets are good going one way and returning another; i. e., going via New Orleans and returning through Salt Lake City and Colorado; or by the payment of $12.50 additional, the trip may be made returning through Portland, Ore.

Stop over privileges are allowed at El Paso or any point west thereof, on the going trip, and at any point west of Denver and Colorado Springs on the return trip. By this means passengers are afforded the opportunity of seeing the entire Pacific Coast. Side trips are arranged at nominal cost from Los Angeles and San Francisco to all points of interest in California. Further information may be obtained from any agent or representative of the Southern Railway, or from

The Best Remedy for Flux.

"In July of last year I was taken with a severe attack of flux," says Mr. Joe Baker, of Allentown, Tenn. "I procured a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and used about half of it and it effected a complete cure. This is the best remedy for bowel trouble on the market. C. Ear muffs were not popular yesterday.

To cure piles, strike at the root—that's the way. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve strikes at the root—it removes the cause, quickly and permanently. Don't squander time and money trying to remove the effects. Howard Gardner.

Alas and alack—a summer girl without a beau.

There is a time for all things. The time to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers is when you are suffering from constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, indigestion or other stomach or liver troubles. They never gripe. Howard Gardner.

"Enough is a feast," but a feast is not enough for some people.

W. M. Gallagher, of Bryan, Pa., says: "For forty years I have tried various cough medicines. One Minute Cough Cure is best of all." It relieves instantly and cures all throat and lung troubles, coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, la grippe and pneumonia. Howard Gardner.

VITALITY EXTRAORDINARY.

Lived and Remained Conscious After His Body Was Cut In Two.

Charlotte, N. C., June 26—One of the most remarkable instances of vitality ever recorded took place here in the case of William Parsons. While trying to mount the southbound vestibule train between the baggage car and the engine tender he lost his hold and fell between the trucks. The wheels of the baggage car cut his body in twain and the entire train passed over him. As soon as the train could be stopped the crew went back to pick up the remains. They found that Parsons was still alive. The upper part of the body was on one side of the track and the lower limbs were on the other side. The two parts of the body were carried into the baggage car separately. The wounded man was not bleeding to any extent and was perfectly rational. He was in great agony and at times begged those on the train to kill him.

The accident occurred at Bethel, a little station an hour and a half's run from Charlotte. Parsons was still alive when the train reached this place, and Dr. R. L. Gibbons, the Southern's surgeon, met him at the depot. The two parts of the man were placed together on a cot. He asked that he might be allowed to die in the open air, saying that he knew his injuries were fatal. He told how he and another boy had started from their home in Caldwell county to enlist in the army at Columbia, S. C. He prayed and pleaded. His conversation was perfectly rational up to within two minutes of the time he died.

Surgeons here say this is the only instance on record of a man whose body was completely severed above the hips who lived and was conscious for any apparent length of time. They say the severance must have been so sudden that the arteries contracted, were closed and prevented his bleeding to death.

The project of consolidating the leading gas and electric fixture manufacturing concerns of the country, with a capital of $15,000,000, is said to have been abandoned.

What you want is not temporary relief from piles but a cure to stay cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles, and they stay cured. Soothes and quickly heals old sores, scalds, cuts, burns, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

"There's plenty of room at the top," remarked the editor. The poet was deeply disappointed, for he had commented upon the fact that the waste-basket was already full.

Beats The Klonkike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemmorhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Marshal J. M. Millikan went to Asheboro this morning. He took with him John R. Thompson, the aged, respectable-looking prisoner who is serving a term for misappropriating postoffice funds. Thompson had never seen the Asheboro jail but preferred it to Guilford's ancient structure that is called by that name.

DISPENSARY ATTACKED AGAIN.

Directors Ordered to Appear Before Judge Timberlake Next Friday.

John N. Staples returned today from Raleigh where he went to appear before Judge Timberlake to secure a temporary restraining order against the dispensary directors to prevent the opening of the dispensary on July 1st. Judge Timberlake refused to issue the desired order but issued an order requiring the dispensary board to appear before him in Greensboro next Friday to show why a temporary restraining order should not be issued.

Mr. Staples asked, on affidavit of E. G. Newcomb to, the effect that the dispensary board was acting without regard to the order of Judge Bryan, that an order be issued against the board, requiring them to appear before Judge Timberlake at the same time and place as above to show cause why they should not be attached for contempt of court.

The dispensary attorneys are confident that the matter will be disposed of in a very few minutes.

A FARMER ROBBED.

Pocket Picked Of $35 By a Supposed Friend.

J. F. Jones, a farmer from near Liberty, was robbed of $35 in bills and checks yesterday afternoon by William Stout, whom he supposed to be his friend. Jones came to town yesterday with a load of farm products which he very soon succeeded in turning into cash. While here he met Stout, who formerly lived in the neighborhood of Liberty, who asked to be allowed to ride home in Jones' wagon. Jones consented and the two men left town together, Jones a little the happier for having imbibed a dangerous amount of whiskey.

When about three miles from town Jones discovered that he had been robbed. Stout vamoosed at the first opportunity and the sheriff has so far been unable to apprehend him.

Immense Crowds.

The immense crowds that were seen at the Carolina Shoe Co.'s store yesterday is proof that the people know and appreciate a genuine bargain when they see it. They are clearing out all broken lines of men's, ladies' and children's shoes at fifty cents on the dollar. If you haven't been to this great clearing-out sale, you should go at once.

A SHORT BUSINESS CAREER.

Young 'Shiner Captured Before the First Run Was Made.

Deputy Marshal W. M. King made a raid in Rockingham county yesterday, capturing Hugh Williams in the act of distilling whiskey without license. The still was destroyed. It appears that Williams had just started his road to wealth or jail and was about to turn out the first fruits of his illegal work when the dreaded officer appeared unexpectedly on the scene. Williams gave bond for his appearance at court.

Mr. King is a watchful and fearless officer and has made it exceedingly warm for the large number of moonshiners in his section since he secured the office.
